

About Trust

Chhatrapati Shahu Institute of Business Education and Research Trust, was established in 1976. The idea of establishing an independent Institute for Management Education under the Shivaji University by Late Dr. A. D. Shinde, a renowned Chartered Accountant, Tax Consultant and then the Dean of Commerce faculty of the Shivaji University.

Dr. Shinde's tireless efforts and dedication, with a missionary zeal, coupled with the blessings and active support of the then Chief Minister of Maharashtra, Hon'ble Late Vasantodada Patil and also of the Hon'ble Sripatrao Bondre, resulted in the present Institute being set up. The Institute is a duly Registered body under the Bombay Public Trust Act. It has received recognition from the University Grants Commission, New Delhi, under section 2 (f) and section 12A. From a very humble beginning in rented premises, the Institute has progressed in leaps and bound to becoming a leading educational organization in Western Maharashtra.
