Department of Environmental Science & Management

Introduction

Environment Management is an important issue in the sustainable development at global level. Soon after the Stockholm Conference in 1972, number of Universities in India started Environmental Science and Engineering courses at graduate and postgraduate level giving more emphasis on basic Science and Engineering aspects of the environment. In the earlier days, environment considered as a product of an industrial process confining only to pollution control of water, soil, air and noise. However, after the existence of WTO and GATT agreement, a number of environmental issues not only confined to pollution control but mainly focus on business aspects and environment to make their product eco-friendly in the global market. Hence Environmental Management is now-a-days turning out to be a good business opportunities for the entire corporate sector. The best example being carbon trading. In this connection, the global convention on climate change at Kyoto, Bali agreement and Copenhagen conventions are the milestones, which provide good opportunities for environment protection and business environment. Hence, it is the need of the time to infuse the environmental concepts in all the functional areas of business development. Therefore, CSIBER intends to develop business professionals' i.e. MBA (Environmental Management) and M.Sc. (Environment & Safety) students with environment backgrounds who can cater to the need of both areas viz. Business and Environment. The CSIBER Trust realized the long-felt need of starting one more division of MBA with specialization in Environmental Management with intake capacity of 60. With these objectives, the SIBER Trust now intends to introduce an additional MBA Division in Environment Management from the academic year 2010-2011 to meet the educational interest of the students and the growing National requirement of Environmental Managers/Specialist in India at large.
